... says Italian presidency will boost Europe with focus on 'jobs, jobs and jobs'

Sandro Gozi, Italy's undersecretary of state for European policies, heads up our Italian presidency exclusive feature. He writes that, "If we really want to improve the fundamental consensus of citizens towards the EU, we must boost Europe to create jobs". He also highlights the Ukrainian crisis as a "most urgent and pressing concern" and says that "the Italian government has encouraged dialogue with Russia in order to attain a peaceful solution". Meanwhile, Federica Mogherini highlights the importance of the Mediterranean to the "future of Europe", adding that it, "both divides and, most importantly, unites us, and is thus a key in this region to ensuring stability, peace and security".
